

The successful 2015 ACU Teaching Development Grant proposals are:

1. Dr Simone Arnott and Dr Michelle Bennett, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: Mealtime Assistance Resource for Speech Pathology Students undertaking Professional Placements in Permanent Residential Care Facilities
2. Mr Jason Betson & Miss Alyse Miller, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: The quality of sleep in final year Paramedicine students.
3. Dr Leigha Dark, Faculty of Health Sciences, North Sydney: Building inter-professional competence in Speech Pathology and Occupational Therapy Students: Creating collaborative learning opportunities within curriculum.
4. Mr Stephen Guinea, Dr Tracey Sanders & Ms Elizabeth Rigg, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: Facilitating excellent teaching practices in role-play for the Health Sciences: a toolkit for staff and students informed by drama.
5. Dr Cathie Harrison, Faculty of Education & the Arts, Strathfield: Improving student outcomes through innovative connections in early years Learning and Teaching.
6. Mr Michael Noetel, Faculty of Health Sciences, Strathfield: Flipped, Online or Face-to-Face: A Mixed Methods, Cluster-Randomised Trial of Lecture Format.
7. Dr Loretta Sheppard & Dr Elisa Yule, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: Implementing Indigenous Curriculum in the Bachelor of Occupational Therapy.
8. Professor Kay Souter, Faculty of Law & Business, Melbourne: Inclusive Pedagogies for Online Teaching.
9. Dr Annie Venville, Ms Helen Brake & Ms Margaret Bramwell, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: “Patients need pit crews not cowboys”: Enhancing interprofessional work place readiness for undergraduate health care student.