

ACU Teaching Development Grants 2018

The Awards and Grants Committee received 15 competitive proposals, and the committee selected 9 projects for funding. The topics align with the strategic priorities of ACU and cover a wide range of initiatives.

The successful 2018 ACU Teaching Development Grant proposals are:

1. Dr Robyn Bentley-Williams and team, Faculty of Education and Arts, Strathfield: 'Work-Integrated Learning in Differentiating: Impact on Teacher Education Practice'.
2. Dr Adam Burston and team, Faculty of Health Sciences, Brisbane: 'Enhancing and integrating the digital learning and clinical simulation spaces for 1st Year commencing Bachelor of Nursing students'.
3. Dr Leigha Dark and team, Faculty of Health Sciences, North Sydney: 'Enhancing assessment feedback dialogue between students, peers, and staff in the Bachelor of Speech Pathology program'.
4. Dr Santha James and team, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: 'Gauging Student Preconcepts in Biology'.
5. Dr Amy McPherson and team, Education and Arts, North Sydney: 'Developing sustainable school–university partnerships in teacher education to support work integrated learning in high poverty school contexts'.
6. Professor Debbie Plath and team, Faculty of Health Sciences, Strathfield: 'Prepared for Placement: Program for international Master of Social Work students'.
7. Associate Professor Loretta Sheppard and team, Faculty of Health Sciences, Melbourne: 'Supporting culturally responsive practice during fieldwork placements'.
8. Dr Matthew Sweeney and team, Faculty of Health Sciences, Brisbane: 'Improving Student Engagement through Tutor Training and Support'
9. Dr Monica Wong and team, Faculty of Education and Arts, Strathfield: 'Visioning My Learning'